

Finance Functions Outsourcing

AideOne

Right People, Right Choice, Right Solution.

Every Organization has its own opportunities and needs. We get to know you and your business so we can agree together which aspects of your finance function are best externally delivered to improve your business and reduce cost.

Our Outsourcing Model

Finance Outsourcing is a business practice whereby a company hires a third party to perform a single or set of finance activities or an entire end to end business process. In this arrangement, we, your service provider is assuming responsibility for the people, process and technology employed along with responsibility of ensure quality delivery. That's our model.

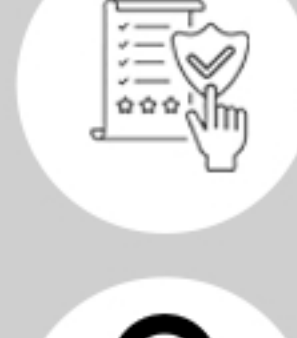

Whatever model you choose to adopt – whether fully outsourcing to us, or partly outsourcing with your team working with us; we collaborate with you to choose which suits your business. We then provide you with real-time, relevant financial information that helps you fully understand how your business is performing so you can focus on core revenue producing activities.
